

Brief Encounters

Transforming frontline practice

Building resilient relationships, improving outcomes for children

The evidence is clear – strong family relationships are key to better outcomes for children and building relationships with parents is essential for effective engagement and early intervention.

The Brief encounters® training, delivered by Ag Eisteacht will increase your effectiveness when supporting families including those under pressure, or experiencing relationship difficulties.

It is evidence based, evaluated and is delivered by experienced established tutors affiliated to One plus One.

Brief encounters® training is An Bord Altranais Category I Approved, CME Accredited and also Approved for CPD Points with IASW.
